DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the Search Report is not considered to be an information disclosure statement (IDS) complying with 37 CFR 1.98. 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2) requires a legible copy of: (1) each foreign patent; (2) each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; (3) for each cited pending U.S. application, the application specification including claims, and any drawing of the application, or that portion of the application which caused it to be listed including any claims directed to that portion, unless the cited pending U.S. application is stored in the Image File Wrapper (IFW) system; and (4) all other information, or that portion which caused it to be listed. In addition, each IDS must include a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office (see 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1) and (b)), and MPEP § 609.04(a), subsection I. states, "the list ... must be submitted on a separate paper." Therefore, the references cited in the Search Report have not been considered. Applicant is advised that the date of submission of any item of information or any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the IDS, including all "statement" requirements of 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because it lacks a cross-reference to the related foreign application. See 37 CFR 1.78 and MPEP § 201.11.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1, 2, 4, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is not supported by either a credible asserted utility or a well-established utility. The claims lack a procedural step.

Claims 1,2, 4, and 8 are also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. Specifically, since the claimed invention is not supported by either a credible asserted utility or a well established utility for the reasons set forth above, one skilled in the art clearly would not know how to use the claimed invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1,2,4, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear what 1,2, 8, and 4 define, as they appear to be method claims without corresponding methods steps.

Additionally, claim 2 recites the limitation "said joining". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. It is unclear how the rib can be "joined from" the modular components.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Le Gall (1,887,814) in view of Tesek (2,020,044).

Le Gall (1,887,814) discloses a wood panel (capable of use as a door panel, page 1, line 3) with at least one lattice-work (page 1, line 50) rib (3) comprising notched (4, 5), interconnected members requiring no adhesive (any suitable means, page 1, line 8, also encompasses fasteners), said lattice-work capable of assembly within a frame (6), or before placement in the frame, and capable of different lattice-work configurations (page 1, lines 53-55).

The members taught by Le Gall do not expressly include scrap wood joined together to form a rib of adequate dimension. However, it is well known in the art to use scrap wood in this way. Reference Tesek teaching a door having a core (10) including scrap wood joined together to form a rib (30) of adequate dimension (col. 2, lines 10-15). Therefore, it would have been obvious and well within the level of one skilled in the art at the time the present invention was made to modify the door panel of Le Gall using the scrap wood joined together as taught by Tesek to provide greater control over material costs.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
